3. MESSAGE TOLL TELEPHONE SERVICE FOR DISABLED PERSONS

A. GENERAL

- (2) TDD is a generic term describing keyboard devices specifically designed or modified for the purpose of assisting deaf people in communicating with others over the telephone network. These include such devices as teleprinters or other keyboard units, which use cathode ray tubes (CRTs) or light emitting diodes (LEDs) to display messages. These devices may also be used by persons who, because of other disabilities, e.g., impaired speech, require a keyboard and visual display to communicate with others over the telephone network.

SELECTIVE CALLING SERVICE

A. GENERAL

- (1) Selective Calling Service is offered, subject to availability of facilities, as a supplement to one-, two-, and four-party business or residence access line service for all the exchanges.
- (2) Selective Calling Service is offered to business customers provided that all lines at the same premises are arranged for Selective Calling Service with the same selected exchanges or localities.
- (3) This service permits calling at a discounted rate to a maximum of ten exchanges, selected by the customer, outside the local service area, but within the State of Maine, not exceeding the maximum distance in the third toll mileage band.
 - a) For the purpose of determining rate distances, a Vertical "V" and Horizontal "H" coordinate system is used. The V-H system consists of a series of coordinates which represents a theoretical grid of vertical and horizontal lines covering the State of Maine. The spacing between these lines is about 1,670 feet, and an intersection of any two grid lines represents the center of an area approximately 1/10 of a square mile designated by two coordinates.
 - b) The location of the rate center expressed in latitude and longitude is converted mathematically to its grid location, that is, Vertical "V" and Horizontal "H" coordinates. These coordinates permit calculation of the distance between any two such rate centers.
- (4) Selective Calling Service rates apply only to customer dialed station-to-station sent paid calls and Telephone Company operator completed station-to-station sent paid calls when facilities are not available for customer dial completion. The rates also apply to operator completed station-to-station sent paid calls for handicapped persons unable to dial calls because of their handicap. All other calls including calls made outside the specified time periods, will be billed as regular toll messages.
